2. Dr Brzezinski has called a meeting on Friday at 1030, right after the PRC(I), between you, him and Judge Webster in the Situation Room. The plan is for to give a 10 minute briefing and then for the three of you to meet for another 10 minutes. This will cut into your reading time for the Pres Memcons, but I'm sure we can find more time after the Cabinet Meeting on Monday should you need it.

5. You will recall that a week ago you wrote a letter to saying you would be pleased to visit with when they were in town. They will arrive in Washington tomorrow afternoon. has two proposals for your consideration: (1) an office call on Monday, or (2) visit with you after church on Sunday. Sunday may not be too good since you have a brunch and dinner dates. are perfectly willing to conform to your desires.
